BIG PROFITS IN PHILLIPS CONTRACTS

Now Being Filled by Other Firms--R. B. Phillips Now Only a Director

Under the caption "These Phillips Contracts," the Boston News Bureau has the following:

Under the recent leasing of the $4,050,000 munitions contracts of the J. B. Phillips-Manufacturing Co., it is assured of 100 per cent of the profits from the operations of the American Ammunition Co. at Worcester.

This lease involves the use of most of the Worcester plant of the Phillips Co. for the manufacture of detonators. The detonators are a necessary but relatively small part of a shell order which the Ammunition Co. secured from the English government. When some question arose as to the ability of the Phillips Co. to advance their manufacture on time, it appeared advantageous to the Ammunition Co. to proceed to make them themselves. As a result of the contract, under the terms above mentioned.

A similar situation developed as to the work at Lowell, which was the reason for the leasing back to the International Steel & Ordnance Corporation of the contract for the making there of 1,000,000 Russian detonators. Under the lease to the International Co., the Phillips Co. will get 50 per cent of the profits from the Lowell manufacturing, with possibly another 10 per cent finally.

The margin of profit under the American and the International companies' operations may prove somewhat less than would have obtained if the Phillips Co. had done the work direct, but the banking interests who have recently been directing the affairs of the Phillips Co. believe that it should realize earnings from the leases that will be substantial and satisfying to both its creditors and stockholders.

At the Worcester plant a good line of regular business is also being done, under direction of J. V. Critchley, its former owner. He has been elected president and treasurer of the Phillips Co., succeeding R. B. Phillips, who remains with the company only as a director. Mr. Phillips has resigned also as general manager of the American Steam Gauge & Valve Manufacturing Co. To conserve working capital needs of the latter company, which are large because of its fuse orders, its directors have passed the regular 15 per cent preferred dividend due Feb. 1.

The $22,426,000 shell-casing contract from the French government, which at one time Mr. Phillips hoped to fill at Portsmouth, N. H., has been canceled so far as the Phillips people are concerned. A rumor persists that the work under this contract has been reallocated through J. P. Morgan & Co. to the Midvale Steel and Baldwin Locomotive companies.

COMPULSORY MILITARY SERVICE BREAKING POINT

Secretary Garrison and President Wilson Differed on This Point--His Successor to Be Appointed Soon

(Special to The Herald)

Washington, Feb. 11.—Successors to Lindley M. Garrison, resigned secretary of war, and Asst. Henry Breckinridge will be chosen by President Wilson not later than next Tuesday. Up to the present time, the President has paid little attention to individuals. Officials state that the President is determined to handle the placing of the army on a proper footing, personally. The new war secretary must therefore be in entire sympathy and accord with the plan of the President. While the Garrison continental plan was the rock upon which the break between the President and the secretary of war finally came, it was accepted in official circles that behind it all was the advocacy of compulsory military service by the secretary and many of the higher officers of the army. The President took the position that no scheme of compulsory service should be advocated; that this was a country that had developed the volunteer system to the limit and the acceptance of the compulsory service was a violation of Democratic principles. Because of this belief, officials were today inclined to believe that within the very near future a rule will be applied to the army along the line that it has been applied to the navy. Naturally the question of the secretary's successor overshadowed all questions.

Among the names under consideration are Representative Swager Sherry of Kentucky; Asst. Secretary of the Navy, Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York; Fred Lehmann of Missouri, recently under consideration for appointment to the supreme court; Major George W. Goethals; Henry N. Pihl, editor of the Pacific, Ill.; Journal; Secretary of Agriculture Houston; Secretary to the President, Joseph P. Tumulty; Senator George Chamberlain of Oregon; Ex-Governor David J. Walsh of Massachusetts. In addition the suggestion has been made that Secretary Lane be transferred from the Interior to the War Department. The President expected to discuss the matter with some of his closest advisors today and tomorrow.

Washington, Feb. 11.—At the culmination of an accumulative series of differences of opinion between them on various subjects, Lindley M. Garrison today tendered his resignation as secretary of war, and President Wilson promptly accepted it.

Coincidentally, Henry Breckinridge resigned as assistant secretary of war. His retirement also was accepted by the President without delay or demur.

Ostensibly, three lines for Mr. Garrison's withdrawal from the cabinet were given in correspondence between him and President Wilson, dating back to January 22, these being:

First—The Clark amendment to the Philippine bill extending further self-government to these people.

Second—Federalization of the National Guard.

Third—Compulsory enlistment for training for the army in preparedness against war.

MAY SELL COLLIERS AND TRANSPORTS

Demand For Shipping Would Bring Better Prices Than Their Original Cost

Washington, Feb. 11.—American shipping interests are lending every effort to induce the army and navy departments to consent to the sale of the colliers, auxiliaries and transports which are not in active use to private owners. These ships they maintain are practically lying idle at the various navy yards about the country and the shipping men assert that if they could be placed on sale, they could be used in the merchant marine, and aid in securing the vast tonnage of shipping that is now being carried on by foreign ships. They maintain that bottoms are so scarce that ships that a few years ago were salable at $100,000 would now readily demand a million dollars. That the great demand for ships to carry the vast tonnage now waiting to be transported to Europe, is the greatest in the history of the merchant marine, and the freight rates the highest. The government would, it is said, at the same time be able to get rid of some of the ships taken on at the time of the Spanish war and at prices far better than they paid for them. That ships suitable for the work of the departments could be built new for less than the old ones would bring at the present time.

RUSSIANS STILL HOLDING GROUND

Austrians Fail to Hold Them in the Galician Front.

London, Feb. 11.—Strong attempts are being made by the Austrian-Hungarian forces on the southern Galician front to force the Russians back to the eastern bank of the Dniester river at Uscelzko, but official advices from Petrograd state that all attacks have been repulsed. The drive of the Russians against the strongly fortified position of the Hungarians at Uscelzko is part of the general campaign in that section to cut a path to Bukowina and occupy Czernowitz.

In Washington it looks as though something would happen now that the accusers of Brandies were to testify under oath.

BULGARIA INVADES ROUMANIA

Swiss Papers Claim That Actual Warfare Has Begun.

STRONG NAVY AND MERCHANT MARINE URGED BY DANIELS

SECRETARY TELLS U. S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE THEY ARE COUNTRY'S TWO GREAT NEEDS.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Preparedness against war was urged today by Secretary of the Navy, Daniels, principal speaker before the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. A merchant marine and an adequate navy, he declared are the nation's two chief needs.

"On our farms we grow more than the republic can use," he said. "We have the right to feed the world. And we do not propose to surrender that right or permit it to be placed in jeopardy. The time when the home market was simple for the products of our factories belongs to the past."

Daniels emphasized how the war has made the opportunity for building a merchant marine. He pointed to the recent sale by the navy of the old collier Justine, which cost $175,000 to build, for nearly twice that sum. It would be futile, he declared, to separate the building up of a merchant marine from a building up of the navy.

"The program offered by the administration," said Daniels, "is a constructive one. If built according to program we will have by 1921 33 capital ships of the first line, 35 battleships of the second line, with 10 armored cruisers, 104 destroyers, 175 submarines and smaller craft in proportion."

NATIVES SCORE PHILIPPINE POLICY

"INJECTION OF POLITICS" CON-DEMNED BY REPUBLICANS OF
THE ISLANDS—DEMOCRATS
ALSO HOLD CONVENTION.

Manila, Feb. 10.—At the Republican convention held here yesterday, the delegates endorsed "the non-partisan policy of former Administrations" and condemned "the present injection of politics" in affairs of the Philippines. The resolutions also expressed opposition to the policies of the Wilson Administration in respect to Mexico, and in other particulars. Newton Gilbert, former vice-governor of the Philippines and ex-Judge. Grosvenor were named delegates to the Republican national convention.

The Progressives also held their convention yesterday. The attendance was small. The convention adjourned and the delegates joined forces with the Republicans.

Democrats Indorse Wilson.

The Democratic convention named six alternates to the Democratic national convention, the delegates and the national committee already having been selected at the primaries. The convention endorsed the policy of President Wilson, particularly his effort for national defense and Governor Harrison's adherence to the principles of party administration of office. The resolutions urge the support of the Philippine bill as reported by the Philippine committee in the Senate, condemn as un-American, un-democratic and unjust what is termed a policy to cast the Filipino adrift without financial resources or protection or guidance; brand as unworthy what is declared to be the abandonment of a sacred trust for reasons of American self-interest.

NEW HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE NOTES

New Hampshire College and Experiment Station, Feb. 11.—A feature of the recent Farmers' One Week Course of New Hampshire College was the exhibit of potatoes, field corn, sweet corn, and canned vegetables and fruits, products of the boys and girls belonging to the Agricultural Clubs of the State. Sixty-three winners of the several county contests had their complete exhibit at Durham. The exhibition marked the closing event of the past season's Club work and made possible the declaration of the state champions.

Carl Chase of Londonderry with a yield of 103.5 dozen ears from a sixteenth acre produced at the cost of 7.38 cents per dozen is the champion of the state sweet corn contest. John Porter of Bedford with a yield of 110 dozen from 1-9.36 of an acre produced at the cost of 8.53 cents per dozen was second, and John Rival of Londonderry with a yield of 44 dozen from 1-12.22 of an acre produced at the cost of 8.56 cents per dozen was third in the same contest.

The field corn contest brought out a remarkable yield of unusually "blue" corn. This corn was raised by John McKerley of North Chichester who had a yield of 12.22 bushels of shelled corn from a quarter acre produced at the cost of 21.97 cents per bushel. Thomas Savage of Henniker won second place with a yield of 19.01 bushels from a half acre at the cost of 34.53 cents per bushel. Laurence Hallett of Westmoreland with a yield of 7.41 bushels from 1-6.41 of an acre produced at the cost of 44.8 cents per bushel won third place. These yields are in terms of shelled corn containing 12 per cent moisture. Credit was allowed for fodder at rate of $7. per ton.

The Potato Contest was the most popular one of the past season with 555 boys planting and 51 of the County winners exhibiting at Durham. The state championship was won by Arthur Welton, a thirteen year old boy of Chesterfield who raised 32.25 bushels of potatoes on a sixteenth acre, producing them for 21.33 cents per bushel. Atherton Frost of Andover was second with a yield of 26.56 bushels from a sixteenth acre produced at the cost of 23.6 cents per bushel. Only nineteen hundredths of a point separated George Lehtinen's total score from that which won second place for Atherton Frost. George had a yield of 25.53 bushels from his sixteenth acre costing him 30.9 cents per bushel. Jerry Furness of South Cornish was the fourth place.

Bliss Page of Pittsfield carried away the State Championship in the Girls' Canning contest.

Interest in the Club Work has grown rapidly increasing from a planting enrollment of 137 during the season of 1914 to 294 during the past season. The Director of the Extension Service, J. C. Kendall, is planning to increase the force at work with the Boys' and Girls' Clubs in preparation to meet the demands of the rapidly increasing enrollment and to make possible the extension of the club work into the other counties of the state.

W. A. LARNED, FORMER LAWN TENNIS TITLE HOLDER, NOW CHAMPION GOLFER

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 11.—William A. Larned, the former national lawn tennis champion, is now in the sport of golf. Larned recently captured the Lakewood trophy here when he defeated G. Wayland Smith 3 up and 1 to play. The match was a disappointment, for both golfers stumbled through it from start to finish. The first hole was Larned's. In 5 to 6, the next two were halves in 4 and 5, the champion without any brilliant play getting the next three, so that he had Smith four down at the sixth. Smith had him back to the final score at the turn, the home ward round being a seaway proposition in which both men frequently passed up good opportunities. Larned, in fact, to compete in various tournaments and many who have watched him play are of the opinion that it will be only a "short time" before he makes the best of them "sit up and take notice."

Memorial Day by a public meeting to be held Thursday afternoon, Feb. 17, at 2:30 o'clock in the chapel of the Middle Street Baptist church.

Mrs. Helen K. Richardson of Concord, the state president of the W. C. T. U. of New Hampshire, will be the guest of the local union. She will give an address which will include the life work of Miss Willard, also a report of the National Convention recently held at Seattle, Washington.

A musical program will be given and an informal reception held after the meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all "White Ribboners" and also to the general public.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell because it's done so naturally, no evenly. Preparing this mixture though at home is messy and troublesome. For 60 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You must dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning, all gray hair disappears, and after another application, two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover that dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

W. C. T. U. EXHIBIT GOES TO HARVARD.

Harvard University has asked that part of the W. C. T. U. Panama-Pacific exhibit be placed in its Social Museum as an "unobtrusive addition to the work of social education." In response to this request a reproduction of some of the most striking features of the collection will be sent to the Museum to continue their work of temperance education in Harvard's "Department of Social Ethics."

The followers of the Stinger story being shown at the Colonial Theatre get the next to the last picture this afternoon.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF CLEVER COMEDY SCORED SUCCESS

"A PAIR OF SIXES" PLEASED AUDIENCE WITH DELIGHTFUL HUMOR PRESENTED BY FINE COMPANY.

"For a second time 'A Pair of Sixes' delighted an audience in this city when it was presented at the Portsmouth Theatre last evening, having lost none of its charm by playing here before. It perhaps, is one of the most amusing comedies playing on the American stage today and it was excellently played by the company presented by H. H. Frazer.

The plot deals with the affairs of George H. Nettleton and T. Duggs John, partners in a pill manufacturing business, who are constantly at loggerheads, each longing to be rid of the other, but neither willing to sell out. They summon their lawyer but decline his various propositions for dissolution until, in despair, he suggests a contract with numerous conditions by which a hand of poker is to be played, with the penalty that the loser shall quit the business for a year and in the interval serve as a servant in the household of the winner. The lawyer is interested personally because he hopes to see T. Duggs John lose with his lips sealed by the contract he will be humiliated before the girl with whom he is in love and in whom the lawyer is also interested. The breaking of the contract means a forfeiture of $5,000 and sacrifice of his share of the business. John loses and Nettleton and the lawyer both feel he will break the contract rather than stick it out for a year. But he grits his teeth and bravely enters upon his duties as butler in the Nettleton household. He is found here performing his menial duties by his sweetheart, who arrives as the guest of the Nettletons. He cannot explain his position to her, and there is more trouble for him through the attentions of an eccentric English housemaid who pursues him for a husband. This comical complication is developed through the rapid hilarious situations and the fun rattle along until the unfortunate partner's sweetheart takes a hand in the game and rescues him from the clutches of his partner. The latter, too, is glad to end the agreement, for he has mistaken the sympathy of his wife for them and believes that she is in love with him, and his assistant creates an uproarious entanglement of his own.

Horace H. Porter, who played the role of the loser, was appreciated, his work being beyond criticism, as was also that of Miss Adeyn Bushness, his sweetheart. Miss Sutton, as the English maid, Miss Williams as Nettleton, Mr. Christidine as the attorney and Mr. Belmont as Nettleton also deserve mention for their very meritorious work.

VERMONT TO BE TWENTIETH?

On March 7 Vermont will vote upon state-wide prohibition. For nearly fifty years Vermont had a prohibitory law, but in 1903 it was repealed by a referendum vote. Every year since then dry territory has been increasing under local option, and today nearly seven per cent of the population live under no-license. Vermonters seem to be heartily tired of alcohol domination, and having been wet and dry and wet again, will, without doubt, by a handsome majority put itself once more in the dry column to stay.

OFFICERS INVESTIGATING POST OFFICE ROBBERIES

Deerfield Money Orders Forged to the Amount of $600 and Congressman Sulloway Has Been Trying to Locate Trouble

Manchester, Feb. 10.—Information coming to him of the systematic robbery of the Deerfield postoffice through the forgery of money orders to the amount of $600 caused Congressman Cyrus A. Sulloway of the first district to come to this state last week from Washington on a hurried visit. He remained in the state long enough only to transact important business with a former postmaster of a rural postoffice whose term of office dated from the first McKinley administration to the advent of the present Democratic president, Woodrow Wilson.

It has recently come to the attention of the congressman representing the first district, that during the past two years the postoffice at Deerfield Center has been robbed of the sum of $600 through forged money orders. Arthur M. Chase was the Republican postmaster endorsed by Congressman Sulloway whose long term of service ended with his resignation at the close of the Taft administration. His successor was L.D. Adams, a Democrat, proprietor of the general store at Deerfield Center, in which the postoffice is located. Although the store has passed into other hands since Mr. Adams received his appointment, he has retained the office and is still postmaster.

Last week two government inspectors paid a visit to Deerfield and are now at work on the postoffice robbery. The case is veiled in mystery, and while citizens of the town have various suspicions, no one, either within or without the postoffice, appears to be able to identify the guilty party or parties. The officials feel positive, however, that they are competent to do so within a short time.

Now a series of forged money orders could be in operation for a period of two years without being detected seems incomprehensible. There is no department of the U. S. postoffice service about which greater safeguards seem to be thrown than the money order department, and yet somebody has been clever enough in Deerfield not only to steal a bunch of money order blanks and postoffice stationery which goes with them, but to properly stamp the blanks in red ink with the Deerfield Center stamp, and forge the signature of former Postmaster Arthur M. Chase so accurately that Mr. Chase was unable to discern the difference between the forged signature and his own.

Postoffice money orders are numbered serially, and it is one of the duties of a postmaster or his assistants to keep track of the numbered orders as they are issued. The loss of one blank even would be sufficient evidence in an up-to-date city postoffice to show that something was irregular, yet in the case of the Deerfield Center postoffice a large number of orders were stolen, filled out, signed, and money to the amount of $600 collected from post offices to which the orders were addressed.

Another complication in carrying through a money order robbery arises from the fact that the postmaster is required to send immediately to the postoffice, on which a money order is to be drawn, an exact duplicate of the order, and without this in his possession a postmaster is forbidden to cash an order.

Another thing: As soon as any postoffice in the country misses a money order which has not been legally issued, the federal authorities are at once notified and every postmaster is warned against payment on that order. Just how many orders were stolen from the Deerfield office is not known, but it is understood that there are others missing upon which money yet remains to be collected. It is generally believed in Deerfield that 19 bogus money orders have been paid and that six more await payment.

Rural postmasters are required to make a report monthly to the nearest U. S. depository. In the case of Deerfield the depository is the Manchester postoffice. If the postmaster has in his custody a larger sum than is stipulated by the postoffice department, he is required to place it in a U. S. depository at the end of each month.

The town of Deerfield has never been so stirred concerning any matter in its history as it is over this money order robbery, and future developments will be awaited with the deepest interest.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-plagued, blunton-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet feel; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

BOSTON & MAINE.

Its Strong Cash Position—January Earnings $893,000 Ahead of 1915.

Boston, Feb. 11.—Despite recent rumors that a substantial portion of Boston & Maine's cash was to be offered in part payment as an inducement to secure from noteholders another extension of short-term indebtedness, we can state that present plans contemplate no such disposition of cash resources over and above the road's working capital requirements. The sum of $1,500,000 is liberal to meet the latter requirements. At present the road has about $1,500,000 cash.

According to preliminary reports, Boston & Maine for the entire month of January increased its freight revenues 14 per cent and its total gross 20 per cent, as compared with corresponding 1915 month. Passenger earnings continued slightly ahead of last year. Operating revenues aggregated at least $363,000 better than in January 1915.

THE FREAK BLIZZARD

At 11:25 o'clock last evening Portsmouth was visited for a period of twenty or more minutes with a severe blizzard. The storm came out of a clear sky, three minutes before the snow started falling the stars were shining brightly and the wind was light.

The wind, during the storm, blew hard from the north, driving the snow before it and giving every indication of a long hard storm. It was all over with the same suddenness as it began, the sky clearing and the wind falling to a quiet breeze. By midnight the stars were shining as brightly as they had been all during the evening.

(The accompanying picture of President Wilson, with Mrs. Wilson and others, was made in St. Louis, where the president delivered one of his "preparedness" addresses. He was greeted and cheered by an immense crowd in the city, which has a large percentage of residents of German extraction. The photographer was fortunate in "snapping" Mrs. Wilson, as she is averse to posing for newspaper photographers.)

THE WIDOWS' CASE AGAINST UNCLE SAM

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT NIGGARDLY TO EMPLOYEES INJURED ON ITS WORK.

(By John B. Andrews.)

The explosion on the United States submarine E-2 at her berth in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, January 15, killed four men and severely injured 10. Three of the killed and six of the seriously injured were civilian workmen employed by the United States Government as plumbers and as yard workmen.

Two plumbers left dependent widows who, under the terms of the present antiquated compensation law of the United States, will be granted as indemnity their husbands' wages for one year only. As these men were earning respectively $1 and $2 a day, it is probable that one widow will receive from the Federal Government no more than $1,200, and the other as little as $600 for the loss of a husband. Both face the prospect of early dependence upon the charity of the community.

State Laws More Liberal. In none of the 33 American states and territories possessing compensation laws would indemnity have been so niggardly. Had the men been working for a private employer in the state of New York the widows would have been entitled respectively to $360 and $180 a year during their entire life of widowhood. In Massachusetts they would have been eligible to receive $1,000 each. In Ohio $2,750 and $2,100 respectively, and in California $3,600 and $1,500.

The Federal Government, moreover, pays no burial expenses. New York and California pays $100, Ohio $150, and Massachusetts, if there are no dependents, $200.

For the injured, also, there is no allowance for medical treatment, and the burned victims of the Federal Government's accident are being cared for in Cumberland Street Hospital at the expense of the citizens of New York City. Massachusetts allows medical and surgical care for two weeks, California up to 90 days, and Ohio up to $200.

It has been agreed for years among informed people, including administrative officials at Washington, that the Federal compensation law of 1903 is the most inadequate in the world and a disgrace to the Nation. Meager as are its benefits, only one-quarter of the Government's 400,000 civilian employees are covered. The act has been condemned by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, which has charge of its administration, by the American Federation of Labor and by numerous organizations of civil service employees.

Congressional Inertia. For three years a bill, drafted by the American Association for Labor Legislation, and based on the best experience of American states and foreign countries, has been before Congress. It has been endorsed by numerous organizations. Leading journals have editorially called for its enactment. Thousands of citizens have written to their representatives at Washington urging that it be passed. It was reported favorably by the Judiciary committee of the House of Representatives as early as April 21, 1914. It has met with no open opposition. It is merely a victim of congressional inertia.

This bill—the Kern-McGillenday compensation bill for injured employees of the Federal Government (H. R. 467)—is still before the Judiciary committee of the House. Congressman Edwin Y. Webb of North Carolina is chairman of the committee and the committee's membership is practically the same as when it reported the bill out nearly two years ago. Its passage would provide just compensation for all workmen injured or killed in the service of the United States.

Furthermore, the present accident recalls the inadequacy of safeguards provided by the Federal Government for the prevention of accidents and occupational diseases among its civilian employees. Deplorable conditions regarding safety and sanitation have been pointed out many times in the past. Judging from the experience in private industry, no more effective method of stimulating health and safety work in government workplaces could be found than the passage of a just and adequate compensation law by which the money-cost of a work-accident is shifted from the stricken family to the broad shoulders of the employer—in this case, Uncle Sam himself.

NINE MEN SLAIN BY MEXICAN BANDITS.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 10.—Word was received here today that Guy Johnson, an American mining man, has been slain by Mexican bandits near Ocampo, State of Chihuahua.

Johnson had evidently fought to the last and sold his life dearly, for the corpses of five Mexicans were found nearby.

Johnson was on his way from Minaca to Ocampo when he was evidently overtaken and attacked. The group around the bodies was littered with cartridge shells.

When Johnson failed to reach his destination a searching party went out and recovered the body.

CITY LEAGUE GAMES

The next City League basketball games will be played at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium on Saturday evening at 7:30. The Y. M. C. A. vs. the P. A. C. will be a fast game while the U. S. S. Southern will fight it out against the City Five and should be as interesting as the Southern won the last game and the City Five are out for vengeance.

NATIONAL POLITICS YESTERDAY'S TOPIC

Washington, Feb. 10.—The spring political military season was on in full blast today. Hats were being thrown into and yanked from the presidential ring with June fervor.

The White House, Oyster Bay, and the supreme court chamber were the gossip centers today, politicians buzzing over developments affecting President Wilson, Col. Roosevelt and Justice Hughes.

Publication of Justice Hughes's last letter declaring he is "totally opposed" to the use of his name in connection with the nomination of instruction of Republican delegates, brought the justice into the limelight, possibly for the last time unless his name is suddenly sprung at the convention.

Publication also was imminent today of a letter by President Wilson allowing the use of his name in the Ohio primaries as a candidate for renomination.

Col. Peck Lyons' declaration as president, Bull Moose and erstwhile Republican leader of Texas, that Col. Roosevelt will accept the Republican nomination if it comes from Republican and not from southern states, also added to the excitement. The colonel's trip to the West Indies, some political wisecracks declared, is intended chiefly to provide another back-from-Africa homecoming.

Despite denials that he is lining up Hughes's delegates in the South, former Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock's interests came in for close scrutiny.

Letters published by Representative Stump of Virginia indicated that politicians that Hitchcock is interesting himself in presidential politics, although the identity of his candidate is not conclusively established.

Announcement by Charles W. Bryan of Lincoln, Neb., of his gubernatorial candidacy with intimations that he, and presumably his brother, former Secretary of State Bryan, will support President Wilson for renomination, although opposing the administration preparedness program, spread sunshine among administration Democrats.

Though he denied as "purely accidental" a telephone conversation with S. Brown Allen of Staunton, Va., in which he was said to have described a movement to nominate Supreme Court Justice Hughes as Republican candidate for President, Frank W. Hitchcock, former postmaster general, today said he is strongly in favor of Hughes's nomination if it can be brought about.

"I am not behind any movement to nominate Justice Hughes," said Hitchcock, "and I know of no movement at present or contemplated. However, I am strongly in favor of Justice Hughes nomination if it can be brought about. I believe he would be the strongest candidate the Republican party could nominate."

Hitchcock was careful to make plain his approval of Justice Hughes in view of his denial that he is working in Hitchcock's interests came in for close scrutiny.

tes before the call was made that the men were powerless to check the blaze or to save furniture owing to lack of water. The loss is estimated at about $240,000, $1400, of which is placed as the value of the house.

Chief William F. Woods responded to the call with the flying squad and stated after the fire that all that saved the barn connected with the farm and the many houses in the vicinity was the direction of the wind, which blew the sparks and flames away from these buildings. Had the wind been in the opposite direction, Chief Woods said that it is probable that most of these other houses and farm buildings would have been destroyed or badly damaged.

Mr. Winn stated that there were two fires in stores burning when the family left for New Castle but that he did not consider them at all dangerous and that it is a mystery to him how the fire started. The property is that known as the old Greenough Farm.

Mr. Winn is well known in this city and at one time conducted the market on Congress street now owned by White and Hildgton.

HIPPODROME MODEL OF EFFICIENCY.

"Hip Hip Hoornay"—two hundred times. On Tuesday matinee of last week, the great pageant of delight at the Hippodrome ended its second century with a record full of remarkable achievements. Pleasure has been brought to one million patrons and the spacious playhouse on Sixth Avenue has re-established itself as a national institution that is unique in the history of the American stage.

Among the many interesting features, one might observe in connection with this memorable season is the precision with which the massive spectacle moves after its 20th presentation. The whole production passed in review with clock-like discipline and in the whole four months of its career but few performances have varied in running time. It is a record that every day the performances begin precisely at 2:15 and 8:15 and the final curtains were drawn two hours and forty-five minutes later, at each performance but seven. At six of these during holiday week a doll was applied to some child attending the matinee, which consumed two additional minutes, and at the South birth day anniversary, a presentation to the popular March King took up seven minutes more than usual. At all other performances not one minute's difference is recorded. This fact, with a production as stupendous as "Hip Hip Hoornay" speaks volumes for the discipline and efficiency of the Hippodrome staff today.

Benjamin F. Greer of Goffstown filed as delegate-at-large to the Progressive national convention in Chicago, with Secretary of State Ryan, Wednesday. This is the first Progressive to file.

Editorial.....28 | Business.....37

Portsmouth, N. H., Friday, February 11, 1916.

The farmers of Rockingham county are to meet in Exeter next Monday for the purpose of organizing a Rockingham County Farmers Association. This county should take advantage of the offer to establish a county agent for working this section. Let every farmer attend this convention. Let us get together and have every farmer in the county work. Let us prove that Rockingham county can sustain itself and supply other sections. No section of the state has better railroad facilities and connections. Let us populate it with men willing to till the soil, even if we have to induce them to come from abroad. There is a grand opportunity to put New Hampshire strongly upon the map, and this section of the state should do its part.

There is a growing suspicion that the voters are going to get a peep into the real condition that now exists in the Wilson political family at Washington. Woodrow has thus far succeeded in controlling the press bureaus of Washington since his advent into office. Every cabinet officer and bureau chief has a press bureau conducted at the government's expense. Every newspaper office is full of various kinds of private and political dope. It is typewritten and has proved attractive to many newspapers. It begins to look as though the mask was about to be drawn.

The announcement of the retirement of Lindley M. Garrison, secretary of war, will cause a deep regret in the minds of every patriotic American, regardless of politics. Mr. Garrison stood out as a bright star in the present Democratic administration. He is a man of ability and had won the admiration and respect of all parties. Just what caused his sudden leaving of the Cabinet will probably never be known, but it is a fact that Wilson has lost the one man of his Cabinet that was popular with both his own party and the opposition party.

Without regard for the enemies made by Mr. Louis Brandeis he still is one of the most popular men in the hearts of the American people today. That he possesses ability is unquestionable. That many fear that he does not possess the required judicial temperament is conceded, but that he is a man capable of filling himself for any duty goes without question. If confirmed, and there appears to be but little doubt that he will be, he will make good.

The successor of Congressman Cyrus A. Sulloway in Congress should be someone from Portsmouth. A citizen of Portsmouth could do more for New Hampshire in the National Government than any other citizen, for the reason that practically everything in the line of government business is located at Portsmouth and vicinity. The fact that several are throwing their hats into the Congressional ring, including the former president of the State Senate, now of Manchester, has caused quite a stir in political circles.

Portsmouth leads the entire state in contributing to the Serbian and Belgian relief funds. Portsmouth has ever been generous to the call of charity, and no better duty can be performed by our people during this world-wide war than to succor to the needy. Our people, especially those that can afford, should continue to give their financial support to the relief of the unfortunate among the stricken countries of Europe.

There is a strong suspicion that much is to be made out of the present Congress by the Democrats in an effort to strengthen their political defenses. The "Preparedness" program launched by the Republicans and headed by Congressman Gardner and others has resulted in every Democrat climbing aboard, including President Wilson himself.

If the American people want Theodore Roosevelt for president it will be well for certain Republican leaders to step aside and not attempt to defeat the will of the people. Regardless of the enemies made by Mr. Roosevelt his strength is looming up in every state in the Union.

The Boston youth who recently "shot up" Albany has been sent to Matteawan state hospital for the criminal insane, the institution in which young Mr. Thaw was confined for a time. There will be interest in the time it takes to effect a "cure" in this case.

There is no question in the minds of any fair minded voter that Charles E. Hughes, if nominated at Chicago, would accept. But do the people really want Mr. Hughes? Would he add the punch that is necessary to a successful campaign?

When that mammoth electrical power plant is established in New Hampshire on the Connecticut, Portsmouth will then furnish many new industries on the Piscataqua.

SHOULD TAKE ACTION TO FREE TOLL BRIDGE

Up to the Commissioners of Rockingham and York Counties to Make Move.

For years the city of Portsmouth has been greatly hampered by the fact that it is practically surrounded by toll bridges. Three and three again there has been agitation to free the big bridge that spans the Piscataqua river connecting the states of New Hampshire and Maine and which forms a part of the state highway of the two states.

Two years ago the commissioners of York and Rockingham counties held several conferences in regard to taking over and freeing the bridge. A price was obtained from the Boston and Maine railroad and then all of a sudden the matter was dropped by the commissioners of the two counties. The legislatures of both states have given the counties power to act in this matter and it would seem as though the matter should be considered and an effort made to remove this barrier between the two states. While we are free to admit that Portsmouth would be the most benefited by such an action, it must be taken into consideration that the residents of the neighboring towns of Kittery, Elliot, York and even Wells, that come to this city to do their trading and dispose of their farm products would also be greatly benefited. Then again there is the summer population. It is a well known fact that of late years both New Hampshire and Maine have become the summer homes of many persons from the Middle Atlantic and Western states, who come to our sea shore resorts early and stay late. During their stay these people leave no small amount of money to our business men and instead of having a barrier in the shape of a toll bridge, we should endeavor to cultivate their trade. Another person that is affected is the person in moderate circumstances who owns an automobile and on Sunday desires to take his family out for a day's pleasure trip. When he reaches a toll bridge and is called upon by the toll gatherer to "stand and deliver" before passing over the structure, it is a hardship. It is also a hardship to the laboring man who works for a laborer's pay and is obliged to pass over the bridge to and from his work and each day give up a certain percentage of his day's pay for the privilege. The freeing of the Portsmouth and Kittery toll bridge would be a move that would benefit many persons and it is to be hoped that the commissioners of Rockingham and York counties will make a move in this direction before the summer travel sets in. Should they decide to do something in this direction, it is believed that the officials of the Boston and Maine railroad would meet them in a spirit of friendliness.

It is not too early to begin action as well as to begin freeing the Portsmouth and Kittery toll bridge if we are ever going to get rid of this barrier to travel.

PEOPLES' OPINION

Credit Where It Belongs

Editor: Your paper has recently had so many communications for and against the present and past freighters that to the writer it seems time to get something else before the public. A statement in a recent issue over the signature of "H. Getchell" said the Veterans would do well to enlist a few live wires like the hero he mentioned. In looking deeper into that matter I find that his hero has been stirring at the Little Borey, teaching members of that organization how to dance, swing Indian clubs, shoot clubs and pose for moving pictures, and is not a freighter with a record, as claimed by Mr. Getchell.

In closing, I want to say for the benefit of the absent members that the first active people to arrive at the recent fire and render valuable service were members of the Franklin Pierce Association, and while they, as a body, decline any credit, it is better the truth be known so that the public will look up to and honor this association instead of having a few heroes in who know how to push the pen, try to discredit these boys who have many times saved Portsmouth from a serious fire.

CURRENT OPINION

Outlook Hopeful for Settling International Disputes by Arbitration.

In spite of the difficulties in the way of obtaining the agreement of nations to submit their disputes to an international arbitration court the problem is a hopeful one and is made more hopeful by the present war. Questions of international boundary lines will be in dispute after the war is ended, and there is good reason to believe that the settlement of such questions by an unbiased court of arbitration will be welcomed by the nations concerned.

The court would be a sort of international vigilance committee, such as are organized in lawless border towns to preserve order.

There is no power today above the nations. Each is a law to itself.

Though we cannot hope to get every nation to join in this compact, since some will cling to unholy ambitions for self aggrandizement and others have old scores to settle, it is to be hoped that enough will join in this agreement to throw the combined weight of their military and economic forces against any nation that attempts to upset the common order.—By Thomas Raeburn White, President of the Pennsylvania Arbitration and Peace Society.

MAINE'S GREATEST AUTOMOBILE EXHIBITION

The Portland, Maine, Show has come to be recognized as one of the real big automobile exhibitions of the country. In fact, this season, in the matter of floor space, number of cars, and decorations, it is larger than many of the shows held in the big centers. So far as things now in vogue, there is nothing shown at Madison Square, New York, Mechanics Hall, Boston, or at the Coliseum, Chicago, that cannot be seen at the Portland show.

Portland's new and magnificent exposition building is to be used for this mammoth show. The entire floor space of 48,000 square feet in the new building has been entirely contracted for. The first floor will be devoted to the exhibiting of pleasure cars, while in the basement trucks, motor cycles, and accessories, in addition to pleasure cars, will prove another complete show in itself.

The decorations for this show will be very elaborate, and will present a feature in themselves. Thousands of electric lights and roses combined with southern amilies will form a canopy of beauty as a fitting background for the display of all that is new and latest in motor cars.

The high standard that has been set by the Portland Automobile Dealers' Association will be maintained by the management this year. In the center of the first floor a very beautiful stand will be erected, from which concerts will be rendered afternoons and evenings by the Boston Ladies' Orchestra.

Special railroad rates have been arranged to and from Portland during Show week, Feb. 21 to 26.

CLEVER WORK OF DIVING GIRLS

FOUR "MAIDS OF THE MIST"
SCORED HIGH IN THEIR ACT
AT COLONIAL LAST EVEN-ING.

Four clever girls, billed as "The Maids of the Mist" presented an excellent diving and swimming act at the Colonial Theatre last evening, an attraction that equalled any similar act playing here in the past. It was a high class attraction and proved to be an especially pleasing one, all four of the young ladies performing their difficult work in such a way as to make it appear very easy.

Every known method of entering the water from a spring board was ably demonstrated by the girls, and their exhibition of the numerous strokes employed by the most famous swimmers added much to the merit of the act.

The stage setting was particularly attractive and the tank was so placed as to allow the use of mirrors which permitted all of their skillful work to be seen by the audience. The four girls are the Misses Frances Murray, Freda LaMar, Laura Murray and Eva Lewis, and it would be impossible to state which of the four was the more expert.

As a feature act, "The Maids of the Mist" would be hard to duplicate on any bill. It proved a big success and the large audience appreciated them as seen by the hearty and generous applause which each won as they executed their clever and difficult feats.

Miss Eunice Howe and her two little dogs were also very well received. Miss Howe proving to be a very pleasing singer and a clever dancer. The dogs were well trained and performed their tricks without a mistake, causing much laughter at their clever antics.

Harry Stanley scored high with his songs and stories, his closing number, a song of a "ladylike young man" rooting for his "hero" at a ball game, calling for several rounds of applause from the pleased audience.

Senator Gallinger is trying to have the names of the rivers and mountains in this state made uniform, as he had the K placed back on Merrimack. Now he has had the National Geographic Board give the proper names to the two mountains in the state called Kearsarge. The decision of the board is that the Kearsarge mountain is in Merrimack county and that Carroll county mountain is by right Mount Penakel. This is the mountain at North Conway which has always been known as the Kearsarge.

WILL MAKE AN APPEAL FOR AID

Serbia, Ravaged by War, in Need of Relief From This Country.

The local War Relief committee will make a direct appeal to the people of this city on Sunday afternoon for the relief of the people of that brave little country, Serbia, which, ravaged by two previous wars, is now laid waste by the invasion of the Austrians, Germans and Bulgarians, the government driven from the country and the people left in a starving and destitute condition.

For this purpose the committee has arranged a free public meeting to be held on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at the Colonial Theatre, at which time Miss Helen Losantich of Serbia, a daughter of a member of the Serbian cabinet, will make an address. Miss Losantich is a wonderfully talented young lady, a graduate of a college and speaks the English language like a native. She talks from actual experience for she acted with many of the royal ladies as a nurse in the Belgrade hospital during the first part of the war and saw the terrible conditions that followed the invasion and slaughter by the Central Power troops.

She came to this country soon after the last successful drive of the Teutonic Allies had been started and has been in touch with her people by letter ever since. The letter of her aged mother, who with her father had to flee from Nish before the invading forces and seek shelter in Albania, and from thence to exile in Italy, is a pathetic account of what the people who had money suffered in the flights, so that some idea of what the poorer class suffered can be imagined.

The country was in a poor condition from the Balkan wars and their condition now is even worse than that of Belgium at any time during the German invasion. The reports from Athens and Salonica are that the people are dying of starvation in the interior and that unless some relief is sent from this country, thousands will perish before the winter is over.

Miss Losantich will illustrate her talk with a series of pictures, some of which were taken by herself.

The Naval Band which has kindly volunteered its services will render a concert program.

PROCEEDS GO TO ORGANIZED CHARITIES

ELKS TO TURN OVER SUM REAL-IZED FROM BALL TO THIS AS-SOCIATION FOR RELIEF WORK
WORK IN THE CITY.

The ball committee in charge of the Elks' Charity Ball have completed the details for the big affair and a large attendance is anticipated. It is the earnest hope of the committee that a large sum will be realized when the ball takes place at Freeman's hall on next Thursday as the entire profits are to be turned over to the financial committee of the Organized Charities to be used for their work among the needy of the city. It has been erroneously stated by several that the money is for the benefit of the Portsmouth Lodge of Elks, but nothing is further from the minds of the lodge members who started the undertaking for the one and only object of obtaining money for the newly organized charitable association.

The work of preparing for the ball has proceeded to the point where all the necessary details have been arranged and it is also the wish of the committee to make the affair one of the biggest social successes of the season. A concert program has been selected and will be rendered by a large orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Clara Marden. This concert will last for an hour after which the floor will be given over to the enjoyment of dancing. No detail that will add to the pleasure of the evening has been neglected by the members of the committee having the ball in charge and the officers and members of the Organized Charities should have a comfortable fund in the treasury to assist in carrying out the great work they are undertaking.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts
if Back hurts or Bladder
Bothers—Meat forms

We are a nation of meat-eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well known authority who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act free. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

Supt. James N. Pringle of the public schools is in Lebanon today attending a teachers' convention, being one of the principal speakers.

Tamprey River Grange, No. 240 of Newmarket will be inspected on Wednesday evening next by D. D. Stines Frink of this city.

James Cassidy, whom it is alleged broke into the cellar of George L. Trefethen's hardware store during the night of Oct. 6 last, and carried away forty pounds of lead valued at $320, and who has since been missing from town, was arrested Thursday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Maurice Leach of Elliot, near Rice's Hollow. It is alleged that Cassidy sold the lead to a Portsmouth junk dealer, who afterward took it to Mr. Trefethen's store. The case came up before Judge Justin J. Shaw in the Kittery municipal court on Thursday evening, but was continued until Saturday evening. Being unable to secure necessary bonds to the amount of $400, Cassidy was obliged to pass the night in the Kittery lockup, where he will remain until the trial on Saturday evening.

RAILROAD NOTES

Directors of both the Boston and Lowell and the Fitchburg are favorably disposed to an acceptance of these roads of preferred shares of the Boston and Maine carrying dividends equal to those now received, but contingent on earnings, and not guaranteed. Such an exchange of shares however, is conditioned upon a cancellation of the Boston and Maine's floating debt through assessment of its stockholders. If the exchange is effected it will mean that both the Lowell and the Fitchburg roads will be merged into the Boston and Maine, thereby increasing the latter's physical assets and reducing its fixed charges by at least $1,520,000. Whether or not these two Massachusetts roads, would consent thus to merge with the Boston and Maine unless the New Hampshire leased lines agree to corresponding changes of shares remains to be developed.

BULGARS CLAIM RIGHT TO INVADE GREECE

Say Not Their Fault that Enemies Hide Under Greek Neutrality and Will Keep Greek Port of Salonica

London, Feb. 10.—A Sofia despatch quotes a Government organ as suggesting that Bulgaria invade Greece and take Salonica. The paper says that Greece may not like to be invaded but that it is not Bulgaria's fault that Greece permitted the Allies to violate her neutrality and seize the Aegean port. Other despatches hint of friction between Austria and Bulgaria over the ultimate disposition of Salonica. Bulgars want to hold the place after the war if they take it and that, of course, is not the point of view held by the Scavenger of Europe—Austria. Whether the Austro-German allies will hold aloof and permit Bulgaria alone to attempt the task of ousting the Allies from Salonica remains to be seen. It is doubtful if King Constantine could hold Greece in check in event of a purely Bulgarian attack, as virtually every Greek hates every Bulgarian. It would be a good plan if the Turco-Tenonic Allies think the Bulgars are accumulating too much self-confidence to let the Greeks and Allies administer a good drubbing. Recent reports from the Balkans regarding the intentions of the Tenonic Allies as to a move from southern Serbia and Bulgaria on the Entente forces at Salonica, such as the Bulgarian announcement would recent to invade, have been contradictory. Despatches announcing a notable concentration of troops and heavy artillery along the Greek border, however, have been frequent.

Sofia, Bulgaria, via London, Feb. 10.—The Government organ Narodni Prava, publishes a leading article asserting that Bulgaria has the right to invade Greece for the purpose of attacking the French and British troops there. It declares Bulgaria is not responsible for the fact that her enemies have violated the neutrality of Greece, and continues: "Our enemies must not remain where they are. We have the right to seek our enemies there and destroy them," in order that they may not threaten us.

"It may be hard for Greece to see foreign troops on her soil, but we cannot permit ourselves to be prevented from defending ourselves. We cannot possibly permit the enemy to remain near our border. He must be driven out. We are prepared to meet all possibilities, with the fullest confidence in our power to win a final victory."

The lowly, homely, common potato is at present attracting attention because of its price. It is claimed that the crop for the past year showed a falling off and a retail price of 15 to 20 cents a peck is the result. During the last few days potato shipments from Bermuda have been received, and these new spuds have commanded a price of $1. Large, wholesale lots are expected within a few days, sufficient to pull down the price of new potatoes materially, while old potatoes should be selling at 25 cents soon. The present price of old potatoes is $2.50 per two bushel bag.

Suffragists and others may sell tags, arm bands, buttons and other such articles without and fear of violating the law if these articles are sold on the street to obtain money for a special fund or conduct a campaign under a ruling made public today by State Commissioner "Thurs" W. The complainants declared it was a violation of the hawkers and peddlers law, but after a thorough investigation Commissioner Hansen has ruled that their stand is not well taken.

SENATE CONFIRMS SLEEPER APPOINTMENT

Washington, Feb. 10.—The nomination of Dr. Charles M. Sleeper of South Berwick as collector of the Portland Customs District, which includes all of Maine and part of New Hampshire, was confirmed late yesterday by the Senate.

NEW HAMPSHIRE EQUAL SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION

Members of the Executive Board of the New Hampshire Equal Suffrage Association held an extra meeting in Manchester, Saturday, Feb. 5th, in conjunction with the Advisory Committee. All members were present except Mrs. Vida Chase Webb of Lisbon who had attended the regular meeting, held Jan. 20th, and Miss Stearns of Nashua who is ill.

The meeting was called primarily to crystallize plans for a big suffrage event that is scheduled for the coming month. The National Woman Suffrage Association is sending a corps of its most able representatives to New Hampshire for a convention to be held in Manchester on the first and second of March, which will make our state feel more strongly than ever that it is an integral part of the National Association.

Among the speakers will be Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, President of the National and also of the International Association. A mass meeting, free to all and to which all are cordially invited will be held on the evening of March 1st, the place of meeting to be announced later as arrangements are not yet completed.

It is hoped that Suffragists from all over the state who have not yet had an opportunity to hear Mrs. Catt may avail themselves of this chance. Her earnestness of purpose, her breadth of vision, her dignity and womanliness combine to make her a leader such as is rarely found and those who do hear her may take back to their section of the state, a message to those less favored ones, an inspiration to work in the coming months which will mean much to the Suffrage cause in New Hampshire.

DYE SITUATION R LIEF IN SIGHT

AMERICAN MANUFACTURER MAKING INDIGO—OUTPUT OF 5000 POUNDS DAILY EXPECTED BY JULY 1.

Boston, Feb. 10.—A little relief in the dye dilemma has recently appeared in respect to one important color—indigo. Next to black, indigo is probably the most important aniline color required by American consumers. If, as experts have claimed, it may be assumed that the United States annually consumes 6,000,000 pounds of blacks, its consumption of indigo would run 3,000,000 pounds or better.

This relief has taken the form of a prospective production by July 1 of 5000 pounds of 20 percent indigo paste daily by the Dow Chemical Co., of Michigan. This would be at the rate of 1,500,000 pounds yearly, or say 10 percent to 50 percent of the normal consumption of the country. There are always possible slips in the development of color production and the making of indigo involves so many intermediate steps that it is possibly unwise to name the precise date when quantity production can go out from the new chemical company.

This prospective new source of indigo is highly important, however, especially in view of the practical disappearance of aniline indigo from the market and the steady depletion of stocks in mill hands.

Before the war indigo was selling at 13 to 14 cents per pound. A normal market today is $1.50 per pound or more than 10 times as much. Some mills have literally 50,000 to 100,000 pounds of indigo which they have acquired since the war at an average price of $1 per pound or higher.

No price has yet been placed on the indigo which this new concern will make but it is a safe guess that the new produced will have to get a price which will constitute a factor of serious importance to mill treasurers in making up their cost sheets for either cotton or woolen goods.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headaches of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pump the blood so far that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head, producing violent throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, dependent, sick, feverish and miserable. Your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of livestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for a while, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure your headache, but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of livestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish tinging which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, flatulency, constipation, or sour acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.

Itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles have yielded to Dr. J. C. O'Connell's

WM. HODGE IN "FIXING SISTER"

A New Comedy Drama of New York Life, at the Majestic, Boston.
After ten years of notable prosperity with two plays only, "The Man From Home" and "The Road to Happiness," that illustrious portrayer of American character types, William Hodge, is now to present a new drama to his host of Boston admirers at the Majestic next week (Feb. 14). Its title, originally announced as "The Social Climbers," was later definitely decided upon as "Fixing Sister," as that title is said to aptly indicate the nature of the plot, in which the unique Hodge as John Otis, a masterful type of American business man, rescues his society-worshipping and little-bunting sister, a wealthy young widow, from the consequences of her headstrong extravagances and social follies. Unlike his previous play of "The Road to Happiness," which had a semi-rural atmosphere and in which he depicted a village youth of the Lincoln type, this new piece is a comedy-drama of New York life and its background is that of the most fashionable kind. The life of the idle rich of gay Manhattan is portrayed throughout its four acts and one scene in particular, which takes place in the Louis XV room of an aristocratic New York mansion, depicts an ultra-fashionable bridge party in full swing. Thirty persons take part in this crowded single picture with its rich decorative effects. One of the biggest comedy surprises of the entire play is said to come as the convulsively mirthful climax to this act. Hodge himself believes that this new role of his—that of John Otis—is the most thoroughly representative American type that he has yet been able to portray; not even excepting his famous characterization of Daniel Voorhees Pike in the Booth Tarkington drama. Otis is the masterful modern American gentleman, as developed by both our industrial and social institutions, at his best. In his support are a number of notable artists, as is usual with Mr. Hodge. Most prominent of these are Hamilton Deane, the celebrated leading man of the London stage who has won such a reputation on this side of the Atlantic in such plays as "With Edged Tools" and "The Butterfly on the Wheel"; Charles Canfield, that veteran character actor, who will play Judge Willard, of the New York Bench; said to be quite an original sort of epicure Miriam Collins, Hodge's new young leading lady, whose footlight debut was made in "The Herford";

"THE PASSING SHOW OF 1915"

Biggest New York Winter Garden Success Comes to Shubert Theatre, Boston, Next Week.

When the directors of the New York Winter Garden, four years ago evolved the idea of presenting an annual revue, they did not dream that they would ever reach the magnitude to which they have grown. "The Passing Show of 1915," which comes to the Shubert Theatre, Boston, next week, the first of these revues, was considered a most pretentious and elaborate production and the cast was a host of notable artists of the stage. Each year these revues have grown both in point of elaborateness and magnificence and also in the wealth of entertainment they offer. The latest one, "The Passing Show of 1915," is a grand combination of musical comedy, ballet, burlesque, spectacle, hippodrome, drama and extravaganza. It takes no less than five seventy-foot baggage cars to transport the scenery and properties of this latest of the Winter Garden productions. There are no less than 120 members of the company and the chorus alone has eleven changes of costume in the course of the play. It takes almost as much equipment to transport "The Passing Show of 1915" as it does some of the bigger circuses. And, most important of all, it takes a weekly bankroll of huge proportions to pay the expenses.

There are two acts, divided into twelve scenes in "The Passing Show of 1915." Among the big features are a flying ballet, the bombardment of an European city, showing the destruction caused by Zeppelins, and the famous runway through the auditorium. Among the entertainers are George Monroe, Eugene and Willie Howard, Marilyn Miller, Daphne Pollard, Helen Eley, John T. Murray, Ernest Hare, Miller and Mack, Lydia Carlisle, Edmund Goulding, Theodor Kosloff, Clarence Harvey, Margaret Ward, Sam Hearn, Flora Lee, Arthur Hill, Dixie Gerard and Marie Flood.

There will be bargain matinees on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, when the best seats are offered at one dollar.

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE"

If we are to accept the consensus of critical opinion, it is many seasons since the American stage has seen so successfully constructed a farce as "It Pays to Advertise," which enters on its second month at the Wilbur Theatre, Boston, next Monday evening, Feb. 14. The story told in "It Pays to Advertise" concerns an idle youth whose father, a captain of industry, casts him adrift. He falls in with a young man who is full of ideas, the principal one being publicity. "Say a thing often enough, and hard enough," says this young promoter, "and the man you are trying to convince will not only fall for your argument, but will shortly believe that he himself is the originator of it."

The disowned son and his pal devise a scheme to boom a new brand of wonderful soap and by means of an extraordinary advertising campaign, build up a tremendous business. But unfortunately they have no soap. Father, astounded at his son's commercial coup comes to the rescue, and all is well, but not before countless complications, sentimental and otherwise have transpired.

"It Pays to Advertise" ran the vendut out at the Geo. M. Cohan Theatre, in New York, and it comes to Boston direct from six months of prosperity at Geo. M. Cohan's Grand Opera House in Chicago. The original cast, to be seen here includes Marguerite Wood, Louise Drew, Cecile Breton, Frances Wright, Grant Mitchell, Will Deining, Ben Johnson, George Schaeffer, W. J. Brady, Clyde Foglio and Gerald Oliver Smith.

No farce has been seen in Boston for several seasons which has continued to

DANIELS AND GARRISON ADDRESS SED NATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Washington, Feb. 10.—Discussion of national defence featured the concluding session today of the annual convention of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Secretaries Daniels and Garrison were the principal speakers on the day's programme. The national defence committee of the chamber had prepared a report on the results of their investigations and a general discussion of the preparedness question was to follow.

The annual election of officers and consideration of resolutions were among other matters before the meeting. President Wilson has accepted an invitation to speak at the annual dinner tonight, which will bring the convention to a close.

Redfield Admits There Were Errors. That there had been wholesale inaccuracies in Government export statistics was admitted yesterday by Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce in a speech before the Chamber of Commerce. He said, however, by an order issued Feb. 1, he had remedied the situation so far as was in his power and that the gross errors of the past, caused by refusal of exporters to give the Government facts and by antiquated laws, would not be repeated.

The Secretary referred to a charge made a month ago by officials of the chamber that the percentage of error in departmental reports was so great it was impossible even for experts to estimate it; that single cargoes running into thousands of dollars in value left American ports without being recorded, and that the published export figures for 1914 fell far short of the actual exports.

He said there was only slight inaccuracy in import statistics as returns on imports were more fully under Government control.

"Such errors have existed in recording exports," said he, "are probably understated. The business of compiling figures of $5,000,000,000 a year under a law of 1820 is not a simple matter. The errors have been caused wholly by shippers who were unwilling to state the facts. I am glad that you have gone into this matter. You are my witnesses that there are no closed doors in the Department of Commerce."

Files a Director. Approval was voted by the chamber of a recommendation that the Federal Government cooperate financially with the states in vocational training at a maximum expenditure of $7,200,000 a year. Five new directors were named as follows:

Edward A. Filene, Boston; W. L. Claue, Pittsburgh; E. W. McCormick, New Brunswick, N. J.; R. A. O. McCormick, Baltimore, and S. H. Anderson, Memphis.

R. G. Rheist of Charleston, S. C., is regarded as the probable successor to John H. Fahey, the retiring president.

To Open New Navigable Rivers. Senator Shields of Tennessee addressed the Senate yesterday, urging prompt passage of his bill designed to accelerate improvement of navigable rivers and promote development of waterpower by private capital.

The measure would remove the restriction which now requires a special act of Congress to authorize the damming of a navigable river, and would enable the Secretary of War to issue permits for the construction of private dams and power plants. It also would give the Interstate Commerce Commission jurisdiction over interstate traffic in power developed on the rivers.

Senator Cummins suggested that rivers not practically open for transportation purposes be eliminated from the provisions of the measure, even though listed as navigable streams in the maps of the War Department.

A report read by Senator Shields on the Committee on Commerce said the bill provided a way to open to commercial navigation many rivers which could not be improved for years by the ordinary method of treasury appropriations.

NAVY OIL SUPPLY IS IN DANGER

SO LIEUTENANT COMMANDER LANDIS TESTIFIES BEFORE SENATE PUBLIC LANDS COMMITTEE

Washington, Feb. 10.—Lieutenant Commander J. E. Landis, in charge of the naval petroleum reserves at San Francisco today told the Senate Public Lands Committee that unless the naval oil reserve in California were exempted from the pending oil land leasing bills the navy was likely to be with out enough oil to supply its oil-burning battleships.

The north half of the reserve, he said, was of doubtful value and only the south half could be depended on for enough oil for a future supply.

The necessity of the valuable reserve depends, he said, largely upon suits now pending to oust the Southern Pacific, which holds patents on alternate sections. In case the Government does not oust the railroad the latter will be able to drain 25 per cent of the entire reserve within twenty years. The Government suits are based on the charge that the railroad knew of the oil supply at the time it obtained patents to the land as having no mineral value.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Hair becomes charming, wavy, lustrous and thick, in few moments.

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

For 25 cents you can save your hair in less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten your hair with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

WHAT THE PRESIDENT EATS

His Selection of Food on His Recent Speech-Making Tour of the Country

Of course the President of the United States is only a human being with some of the frailties and errors of judgment that are common to ordinary mortals.

And yet the people naturally look to their Chief Executive as a leader and a guide not only in governmental matters, but in everything that calls for sound judgment and careful thinking. They expect him to avoid the failures that deplete the mental and physical powers of other men who have less responsibility and less concern for their bodily condition. They expect him to exercise uncommon care in the selection of food and the observance of the laws of hygiene and other matters that pertain to physical welfare.

On his recent speech-making tour President Wilson addressed great audiences in eight of the larger cities. This strenuous adventure called for the highest physical fitness and endurance. He was naturally anxious to keep himself at top-notch condition. Here is the breakfast he ordered at the hotel the morning he arrived in Cleveland. As published by the "Cleveland Plain Dealer."

Grapefruit
Shredded Wheat Biscuit and Cream
Two four-minute Boiled Eggs
Boiled Bacon
Buttered Toast
An Apple for Mrs. Wilson
Coffee.

A careful study of this menu from a dietetic standpoint will impress most Americans with the fact that the President's ideas of "preparedness" do not apply alone to the national defence but to the conservation of health and bodily fitness for the day's work. In other words, he is a man who has learned that the power to do things comes from leading "the simple life."

SPRING STYLESPercales Gingham*Romper Cloth*12 1-2c Per Yard*D. F. BORTHWICK*THANK PEOPLE OF THIS CITY*Hebrews, Much Pleased With the Work for Relief of War Sufferers.

The following letter thanking the people of this city for their generous offering for the Jewish relief fund has been received by Max Goodman, treasurer of the local relief committee: New York, Feb. 9, 1916.

Mr. Max Goodman, treasurer, Portsmouth Relief Committee, Portsmouth, N. H.

Dear Sir: We have yours of the 31st enclosing $557.10 to which most of the money came as the result of the Tag Day organized in your city, from Jews and non-Jews as well.

Mr. P. W. Harford, local theatre manager, surely deserves much praise for having accepted the tags as admission to his theatre on that day, and the generosity of the people of Portsmouth in having added so considerably the cause of Jewish War Relief, is a matter which is surely most graciously appreciated by the members of this committee.

May we ask you through the medium of your local press, to have an expression of thanks of this committee for the assistance rendered the cause in the singular service on President's Proclamation Day, by making an appeal in behalf of our people, which we prize far more, I assure you, than the money obtained, because apart from the good the money will do, it vouchsafes that feeling of gratification which humanity can only enjoy when it is put to the test of proving the common brotherhood of man, and the President of the United States in naming Jewish War Relief, surely had the ethical idea in mind, as well as he did the practical assistance that he knew would be forthcoming from the people of America.

Yours very truly, STANLEY BERG, Man.

TONIGHT THE BIG NIGHT. Triangle Plays for Monday and Tuesday—Douglas Fairbanks in "Double Trouble," a D. W. Griffith production; Fred Mac in "The Janitor's Wife's Temptation," Keystone comedy.

In this city on Tuesday last were schoolhouses and are not so old as they made it appear, when they they arrived in this city on Thursday, Feb. 3 to give the five days notice required by law.

The marriage was the result of a football romance begun a year ago when the groom, Alfred S. Hall, Jr., was a senior in the Revere High school.

According to the young man's father, Alfred S. Hall, Sr., a former state senator and president of the Revere city council, the boy is only 17 instead of 21, the age he gave the city clerk.

Miss Corbett, mother of the eloping bride, Katherine A. Corbett, says her daughter is the same age as the groom. They put on a year when the intention was filed out.

While the parents were aware that Cupid had the young couple well in hand, they had no idea that their affection for each other would end in a runaway marriage.

COLONIAL THEATRE

Home of Refined Vaudeville.

Safety and Quality First.

The Maids of the Mist are taking the big dives every afternoon and evening at the Colonial. Into the big tank they dive from the most impossible positions as nonchalantly as you step into your bath tub. They hit the water so cleanly and swiftly that it seems almost impossible that they could right themselves in time to keep from going right through the bottom of the tank and into the basement.

A prettier, classier bunch of girls it would be hard to find, and every one a charming little mermaid. You mustn't fail to see them. Harry Stanley, singing and talking comedian, has a line of five talk which he hands out free gratis, and a lot of laughs and smiles are thrown in. Bunce—Howe, novelty singing comedian, has a pleasing little act, assisted by her two clever dogs.

Pictures for Friday and Saturday "The Moth and the Star," 2 part Kalem drama. The next to the last episode in the "Stingaree" series.

Out of jail and in again is Stingaree's experience in the one day of exciting action compressed into this episode. He escapes by changing places with the crank prison reformer who comes to hear his tale of his life. After helping himself to a change of clothing Stingaree that evening attends a concert at which Ethel, his former sweetheart, sings, but his audacious daring results in his recapture and the closing scene finds him in the same position as the opening one.

ENTERTAINED LADY FRIENDSKnights of Columbus Give Theatre Party Followed by Lunch and Dancing.

In recognition of the valuable assistance rendered on the occasion of their recent fair, the members of Portsmouth Council, 110, Knights of Columbus, royally entertained their lady friends on Thursday evening with a theatre party, lunch and dancing. The party numbered upwards of one hundred and the time up to 9 o'clock was passed at a local theatre. They then repaired to the Knights of Columbus home on Islington street where an appetizing lunch consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, rolls, ice cream, cake and coffee was served by Caterer Frank Leary. The remainder of the evening was passed with dancing, card playing, pool and other games. The officers and members of the Council left nothing undone for the entertainment of their guests and the occasion will be pleasantly remembered for many days to come by those fortunate enough to be present. The occasion as a whole was a fitting testimonial to the valuable services rendered by the ladies on the occasion of the recent fair which netted the Council upwards of $700.
